

GCSE Drama — Blood Brothers (AQA-flavoured overview)

CCDesigner prototype overview — original outlines for demo planning only. Not a paid publisher pack. Logos and product names do not imply endorsement.

Key stage & curriculum

KS4 / GCSE Drama (ages 14–16). AQA-style Component 3 set-text study — Blood Brothers by Willy Russell. Prototype inspired by We Teach Drama's publicly listed Revise Blood Brothers Scheme of Learning (£45, with guided talk-through). Original CCDesigner outlines only — not a copy of paid PDFs or slides.

What the official product emphasises (public listing)

- Practical workshop revision of key extracts
- Exam-focused strategies for higher-mark written responses
- Retrieval slide activities and a guided talk-through of resources

Assessment focus (prototype)

- Vocal / physical characterisation and proxemics
- Social/historical context (1980s Liverpool, class, nature vs nurture)
- Design for meaning (costume, set, lighting)
- Evaluative exam language: intention !' skill !' moment !' audience effect

Example lesson sequence (5 × ~60 min)

1. Context & class — 1980s Liverpool; nature vs nurture framing.
2. Narrator, omen and dramatic irony — how the audience is positioned.
3. Mickey & Eddie — vocal/physical contrast across childhood !' adulthood.
4. Design for meaning — class readable in costume, set and lighting.
5. Exam rehearsal — performer question with banded success criteria.

Example lesson deep-dive — L3 Mickey & Eddie

Starter (10): Still images of “same age / different worlds”; annotate proxemics.

Develop (25): Pair duologues — switch status through pitch, pace, gesture.

Apply (15): Rehearse a short reunion extract with clear class gap.

Plenary (10): Write one exam sentence: intention !' skill !' moment !' effect.
